7.	Presentation	10 marks
TOTAL		100

9.7 Qualifying to Oral Rounds (Memorial Elimination)

The teams qualifying for the Competition shall be selected on the basis of their memorial scores as follows. There will be 4 slots reserved for teams representing foreign universities having highest memorial scores, while the remaining 20 slots will be allotted on the basis of memorial scores irrespective of the nationality of the teams.

10. RESEARCHERS' TEST

- a) The Researchers' Test shall be conducted on April, 6th, 2018.
- b) Participation in the Researchers' Test is mandatory for all teams and failure to participate may result in disqualification, subject to the discretion of the OC.
- c) In case of teams with three members, only the Researcher, as designated under Rule 1(m) of the Rules of the Competition, shall write the test and such Researcher shall not be allowed to address the Panel during the Oral Pleading Sessions.
- d) In case of teams with two members, either of the members may write the test. However, in such a situation the name of the person writing the test must be disclosed to the OC at the time of registration.
- e) The duration of the Researchers' Test shall be 1 hour and it shall be in the Multiple Choice Question format.
- f) The Researchers' Test shall test the knowledge of the laws involved as well as the factual details of the Moot Problem and the application of the relevant laws to the circumstances in the Moot Problem.
- g) Researchers' Test shall not be an open-book test i.e. no notes, bare acts, books or any other material or electronic aid shall be permitted during the test.

11. ORAL ROUNDS

11.1 General

- a) The oral pleadings shall be in English only.
- b) The Moot shall consist of Preliminary rounds and advanced rounds. Each team will argue in two (2) Preliminary rounds, once on behalf of each Party.
- c) The Advanced Rounds shall consist of three knock-out rounds – the Quarter Finals, Semi-Finals and the Final i.e. each of the Advanced Rounds shall consist of only one session of oral pleadings (either as Claimant or as Respondent).

- d) During the oral round, the teams are not allowed to use any electronic device such as laptops, mobile phones, video camera etc.

11.2 Order of Presentation

- a) Prior to the beginning of a particular oral round, parties should try to agree on the order of presentation of oral arguments to be followed in that round. The same has to be informed to the arbitral tribunal at the beginning of the round.
- b) Notwithstanding the agreement that the teams may have reached, the final authority to decide the order of presentation rests with the arbitral tribunal.
- c) If there is no agreement between the parties, the Arbitral Tribunal shall decide upon the order of presentation.

11.3 Fixtures

- a) In the Preliminary rounds, slide match-up system shall be used to determine the match-ups.
- b) In the Quarter-final and Semi-final rounds, the power match-up system, with the help of scores, shall be used to determine the match-ups. For example, the team with the highest cumulative score in the previous round will be put up against the team with the lowest cumulative score in the previous round.
- c) Determination of sides for advanced round shall be decided as per Rule 11.4.

11.4 Determining Sides in Advanced Rounds

- a) If the two teams in any of the advanced rounds, including the final round, argued against one another in the preliminary rounds, they will argue for the opposite party in the advanced round. If they did not argue against one another in the preliminary rounds, in the first advanced round the determination as to which team will be Applicant and which will be Respondent will be by draw of lots. In the following rounds, when one of the two teams in the preceding round was Applicant and the other was Respondent, they will argue for the opposite party for which they argued in that preceding round. If both teams argued for the Applicant or both argued for the Respondent in the preceding round, the decision as to which team will be Applicant and which will be Respondent will be determined by a draw of lots.

11.5 Time Allocation

- a) Prior to the beginning of the oral round, the team must inform the timekeeper of the manner in which the team wishes to divide its total time between its (i) first speaker, (ii) second speaker, and (iii) the rebuttal (for Applicant) or sur-rebuttal (for Respondent).
- b) In preliminary rounds, each team shall strictly get a total time of 30 minutes to argue subject to a minimum of 12 minutes per speaker and maximum 4 minutes for the Rebuttals/Sur-Rebuttals.
- c) In Quarter-Finals and Semi-Finals, each team shall strictly get a total time of 40 minutes to argue subject to a minimum of 15 minutes per speaker including maximum 5 minutes for the Rebuttals/Sur-Rebuttals.
- d) In Finals, each team shall strictly get a total time of 45 minutes to argue subject to a minimum of 18 minutes per speaker including maximum 5 minutes for the Rebuttals/Sur-Rebuttals.

11.6 Structure and Procedure of Oral Rounds

11.6.1 Preliminary Rounds

- a) Each team shall argue once from each side on the same day according to the Fixtures as per Rule 11.3.
- b) Preliminary rounds will be judged by a panel of two (2) Judges.
- c) In determining the winner of a preliminary round the memorial scores of the respective side will be added to the score of oral rounds. The final score of a team in a preliminary round will be 70% of score of Oral Round awarded to the team + 30% of Memorial Score of the respective side [Claimant/Respondent].

11.6.2 Quarter Finals

- a) Quarter-Final rounds will be judged by a panel two (2) Judges.
- b) Teams with two-wins shall proceed to the Quarter-Finals.
- c) If there are more than 8 teams which qualify by way of two-wins, the top 8 teams with highest cumulative scores in both the slots of Preliminary Round combined (out of all the teams with two wins), shall proceed to this round.

- d) If there are less than 8 teams which qualify by way of two-wins, the remaining teams with one win shall be chosen on the basis of their cumulative scores in both the Preliminary rounds combined as per Rule 11.6.1 [c].
- e) In case of a tie in scores calculated as per Rules C or D of this Rule, the team with higher speaker score shall proceed to this round.

11.6.3 Semi-Finals

- a) Semi-Final rounds will be judged by a panel of three (3) Judges.
- b) Winners of Quarter-Final rounds shall proceed to the Semi-Final rounds.

11.6.4 Finals

- a) Final round will be judged by a panel five (5) Judges.
- b) Winners of Semi-Final rounds shall proceed to the Final rounds.

11.6.5 Rebuttal and Sur-Rebuttal

- a) Teams may reserve time for Rebuttals or Sur-rebuttals as per Rule 11.5.
- b) The Rebuttals or Sur-rebuttals, as the case may be, shall be presented by only one Orator of the team.
- c) The Rebuttals for the Claimant shall be limited to responding to the oral pleadings of the Respondent. The Sur-rebuttals for the Respondent shall be limited to responding to the Rebuttals by the Claimant.
- d) If a team fails to reserve time for a rebuttal or sur-rebuttal at the beginning of an oral round, it shall not then request that such time be added during the course of the round.

11.6.6 Non Attendance

In case any opponent team fails to appear in an Oral Pleading Session, the round shall be conducted ex-parte and the scoring shall be done as if the defaulter team had been present and arguing.
